

Ethics lesson - Playwickian edit

Divide the class into groups of five to discuss the Washington Post articles and the examples they found. Questions they might address include:

Students' responses:

1

--What is the point of the Playwickian editorial?

2

--Why do they choose to omit the word "Redskin" from their publication?

3

--How does the editorial board support and defend its decision to omit the word from future issues?
